THEY GOT SHOCKED

Toll collectors on the Golden Gate bridge were shocked literally when static developed by all-steel automobiles produced a charge making sparks spring from their hands to those of motorists. A limber wire, or "cat's whiskers," was devised to run the charge off harmessly. If bridge conduct never produces a greater shock than that, little traffic is likely to be diverted to the ferries. A large number of people need to be awakened occasionally.

RAIDS PROVIDE MORE STILLS ABOUT VALLEY

John Gherloni Made Guilty Plea When Arraigned

2 MORE STAND TRIAL

Tony Cassela And L. Broggi, Talmage, Fight Charges

Agents of the State Board of Equalization working out of Ukiah last week continued a round-up of alleged illicit liquor sources hereabouts, arresting three men and seizing two stills and confiscating a quantity of wine, beer and brandy.

Five Apprehended.

Last week's raids brought the total arrests for the week to five, with three stills being uncovered.

One Pleaded Guilty.

John Gherloni, of Redwood Valley, pleaded guilty to a charge of manufacturing liquor without a license when he was taken into Ukiah justice court after F. L. Fisk and Charles Cameron, liquor control officers for the state board of equalization, had found a small still, 30 gallons of illicit brandy and 600 gallons of untaxed wine on his ranch.

Plant Was Concealed.

The outfit was hidden in the hay in a barn at the rear of Mr. Gherloni's home. Justice of the Peace Van Dyke set Friday next for pronouncement of sentence.

Two Plead Not Guilty.

Hitting into the section south of Talmage, the agents arrested Lombardi Broggi and Antonio Cassella. A 25-gallon still was found in Mr. Broggi's barn, along with 350 gallons of untaxed wine, while at Mr. Cassella's home, 10 gallons of brandy, 775 gallons of untaxed wine and a large quantity of home brew were said to have been confiscated. Both pleaded not guilty when brought before Justice Van Dyke.

ERIC AALTO'S MIND SNAPPED

Man Who Killed A Hindu Returned To Asylum

UNBALANCED HIM

Ever since the tragedy which resulted in the death of the Hindu in the Aalto home Mr. Aalto has reflected the mental strain he was under. Not long ago he was in The Press office and, at that time, plainly showed his mental unbalance. Since the killing Mr. Aalto suffered a financial loss and this, it is believed, aggravated his condition.

Eric Aalto, Redwood Valley vineyardist, who was sent to the Mendocino State Hospital for the Insane several months after his acquittal on a murder charge in the slaying of a Hindu ranch worker, was recommitted to the institution Wednesday.

Became Deranged.

Mr. Aalto was discharged from the hospital a year ago, having apparently regained his sanity. In recent weeks, however, he has suffered hallucinations, officers said, and it was deemed necessary to return him to the hospital for observation and further treatment.

Stock Blue Lakes With Catfish-Perch

Blue Lakes are being stocked with 5000 full-grown Sacramento perch and a large number of full-grown forked-tail catfish from Clear Lake. Game Warden Ed Johnson is in charge of the transfer of the fish, which are being seined in Rodman slough by M. A. Kayser and are placed in a live-box. Once a day the catch is hauled to Blue Lakes in tank trucks and liberated at Blue Lake and Laurel Dell.

IS IMPROVING

Mrs. H. L. Zeek who has been ill at her home for the past month is improving and soon will be about again.

BIG CONTRACT WAS AWARDED

Hemstreet & Bell Are To Handle Pepperwood Job

What Bid Was.

The Marysville contractors' bid was $155,753.

NO CITATIONS FOR AUTOISTS

Traffic Officer Fred Hamilton, at Willits, reports there was not a single automobile accident or citation issued in that section during the heavy travel over the weekend. This was a fine record for that part of the Redwood Highway, as it was one of the few places in the state to escape with no bad accidents.

WENT TO COAST

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huffman and children enjoyed the weekend on the coast. Mr. and Mrs. A. Massaro accompanied them on the outing.

President C. M. Mannon, of The Savings Bank of Mendocino County, was in Willits Wednesday.

ORNBAUN ROW AIRING WILL SWITCH HERE

Change Of Venue To Mendocino Co. Is Requested

WIDOW DENIES CLAIMS

Hazel Nobles States C. Ornbaun Failed To Pay For Dogs

Denying charges she conspired to steal four valuable sheep dogs from the Casper Ornbaun ranch, Mrs. Hazel Nobles, widow of the late John Nobles, former partner of Mr. Ornbaun, has filed a motion in superior court of Sonoma county, seeking transfer of trial of a damage suit against her to Mendocino county.

Claims Dog Ownership.

Mrs. Nobles points out the dogs were the property of her husband, and that they are a part of his estate, of which she is administratrix. She charges further Mr. Ornbaun offered to buy the animals from her at a price of $400, but that he failed to make payment. Acting on advice of her attorney she claims in an affidavit supporting her change of venue, she has the dogs in her possession.

Acted By Herself.

Mrs. Nobles also denies her brother-in-law, Harmon Nobles, aided her in any way, or conspired with her to remove the dogs from Mr. Ornbaun's property. Mr. Nobles was named jointly as a defendant in the damage complaint filed by Attorney Ornbaun.

Told To Do So.

In her affidavit, Mrs. Nobles states the four dogs mentioned in Attorney Ornbaun's complaint were never out of her possession, and she removed them to a safe place at suggestion of her attorney.

The committee wishes all players to abide by the course rules, to improve the caliber of play on the local links.

TO LIVE AT ELK

Dr. G. T. Barcklow and wife, of Ukiah, who have been passing their weekends at Elk for some months, moved there the last of the week. They are getting nicely settled in North Main street.

SPORTSWOMAN WAS INJURED IN LAKE RACE

Near-Fatality Is Seen In Contest During The Regatta

BECAME UNCONSCIOUS

An Overturned Racer Struck Victim On The Head

Thrown into the water and struck on the head by an overturned racing launch during preliminary speed runs of the Clear Lake Yacht Club on the afternoon of the regatta, Mrs. May Tyrer was saved only miraculously.

Many Saw It.

A large crowd, gathered on the Nice Clubhouse waterfront, witnessed the accident and rescue. Jacques Hayes, owner and other occupant of the craft, was also hurled into the lake but was unharmed.

How It Occurred.

Mr. Hayes and Mrs. Tyrer, both experienced sailors, were circling the race course and were passing a boat landing at the clubhouse pier when L. H. Murch, of Sacramento and Clearlake Park, cruised out from beside the pier to warm up for a coming race event. The occupants of neither boat could see the other until the two were almost in collision.

Did Her Best.

Mrs. Tyrer was helmsman of the Hayes boat and, at sight of the Murch craft, turned the wheel over with such speed and force the boat upset.

Became Hysterical.

Ed. Murch and Roosevelt Johnson, of Clearlake Park, crew of The Murlee, veered around quickly. Mr. Hayes rose to the surface at once but Mrs. Tyrer appeared more slowly and came up in hysterical struggle. A rope was tossed to her, and apparently reluctantly she seized it and was drawn to the boatside. Here she tried to resist her rescuers and it was not until she was taken ashore it was found she was partly unconscious from a blow on the head.

FR. CANTILLON LEAVES UKIAH

Head Of St. Mary's Catholic Church Is Off To Ireland

Father Berchmans Cantillon, who has been pastor in charge six years at St. Mary's church here, left Sunday for the east coast where he will board a vessel for Ireland.

A Fine Character.

The departing priest is one of the fine type of old-day prelates who unostentatiously go about their duties. Of a retiring disposition Father Cantillon kept close to his church and his parishioners.

All Wish Him Well.

He is a remarkably educated man, a reader of wide scope and a deep student. Father Cantillon goes to the Mother House in Ireland and whether he will return here cannot be said, but everyone who knows the departed priest will hope his life may be cast in pleasant places and that all may go well with him in the years to come.

TREE TRUCK VICTIMS

Dead Man A Native Of Willits And Was Popular Employe

Fred Williams, a tractor driver for the Caspar Lumber Company, was instantly killed while at work in the Camp 19 woods Monday afternoon, about three o'clock.

Struck By Tree.

An oak tree fell across the Caterpillar engine Mr. Williams was driving and crushed him. Workmen nearby heard the crash and also determined the Caterpillar had stopped for some reason. Investigation by them revealed the tree had struck the machine with such force it had killed the driver and put the motor out of commission.

Was Working Alone.

There were no eyewitnesses to the tragedy, as at the time of the accident Williams had been working apart from the other woodsmen.

Born At Willits.

Frederick Williams was a native of Willits born August 23, 1910. He was a fine young man and was held in high esteem by his employers and fellow workers.

SYMPATHY IS FELT BY TOWN

General Sorrow For Passing Of Willits Man Seen

Funeral services were held for Fay N. Dryden, of Willits, Thursday in that city, the Eagles conducting the last rites in a beautiful and impressive ceremony. Masses of flowers bore mute testimony of many friends of the deceased, who were shocked at the sudden passing of the 61-year-old resident of Willits.

Became Despondent.

Mr. Dryden for some years past had suffered from a severe and painful illness and, becoming despondent at his inability to work, shot himself through the forehead Tuesday of last week. He had been home but a few days from Santa Rosa where he had been visiting and aiding his wife, who has remained there for some months past to care for her invalid mother, Mrs. John Hayden.

The Mourning Relatives.

His kindliness had endeared him to all who knew him. Deceased was born September 22, 1876, in El Dorado county, and since the age of four years has been a resident of Mendocino county. He was married to Clara M. Hayden, September 3, 1903. He is survived by his wife; four sons, Robert Merrill Dryden of Oakland, Kenneth Irvin Dryden of Hetch Hetchy, Zeryl Dryden of Talmage, and Verneth Dryden, a senior at Willits high school; two brothers, Robert J. Dryden of San Rafael and Wm. B. Dryden of Sacramento, and a sister, Mrs. Maryjane Dart of Ukiah.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Mackintosh, of Anderson Valley, were Ukiah visitors Wednesday. Mr. Mackintosh said he believed ranchers, generally, would have average crops this season.

ROEBLINGS TO SOLVE ROAD MUD BARRIER?

Suspension Bridge Is Considered For Aid To Round Valley

COST IS MODERATE

Community Has Almost Continuous Isolation Record

It is now proposed to build a suspension bridge across the canyon just below the mud slide on the Dos Rios-Covelo road. So many of our people have seen the new Golden Gate bridge they realize the advantages of this type and the cost is said to be about the same.

Made Set Of Plans.

Fred W. Hammond, President of The Roeblings Company, which furnished the steel wire for the Golden Gate Bridge, was interested in the Mendocino county project and he selected Engineer Cole to view the project and draw plans and specifications. Engineer Cole, accompanied by Supervisor Bittenbender, County Surveyor Ed Smith and Senator G. M. Biggar, spent some time last week at the site and discussed the project from all angles.

What Situation Is.

This mud slide is just about half way between Dos Rios and Covelo and has been giving trouble several years. Last week there was another slide which blocked traffic a short time. The mountain back of this slide has broken loose a mile back of the road and this debris will keep coming down for years. A suspension bridge is figured to give the least obstruction and allow the mud to move on under it and down to the river.

BILL OF SALE IS CONTESTED

Suit Is Commenced Over Irvine Lodge Property

Possession of 25 articles of personal property is sought by Burrill E. Keating and Marie E. Keating through an action filed last week against Ida Irvine, Paul Olendorf and Mrs. Paul Olendorf.

What Claims Are.

The property is a part of the furnishings and equipment of Irvine Lodge, situated north of here. According to the complaint the goods passed into the hands of Ida Irvine through a bill of sale executed December 13, 1933, with the understanding between all parties to the transaction the property would be held for use of the Keatings and returned to them on demand.

Have A Lease.

Possession was sought on May 5, 1936, but transfer of the goods and title was refused. Judgment of possession is asked by the complaint, or, in event return of the goods is impossible, a judgment for their cash value. Mr. and Mrs. Olendorf are brought into the controversy because they claim an interest in the property through a lease in their possession.

POTTER VALLEY WOMAN IS DEAD

Mrs. Nettie Alice Filben died at the age of 66, Monday evening at her home in Potter Valley, where she lived the past 37 years, following a prolonged illness. Besides her husband, O. B. Filben, deceased leaves many friends to mourn her loss. Services will be held at 10 a. m. Thursday at the graveside in Potter Valley cemetery, with Rev. Addington, of Potter Valley Methodist church, officiating. Funeral arrangements are being handled through the Eversole Mortuary.

An Old Pledge Was Fulfilled Thursday

In fulfillment of a firm determination arrived at many years ago, Fred Redemeyer arranged his work at his ranch north of Laytonville, to permit Mrs. Redemeyer to be among the first to drive across the Golden Gate bridge. They stayed in the city several days to enjoy the Fiesta.

WERE AT RANCH

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Redwine went to their ranch near Spyrock Saturday and passed the three-day holiday there.

FARMERS PLAN TO ORGANIZE THIS EVENING

Meeting Is To Take Place At Auditorium At 8 P.M.

NO AGGRESSIVE MOVE

Ranchers Simply Desire To Protect Interests

A meeting of great importance, not only to the farmers of Ukiah valley, but to all of the farmers of Mendocino county, will be held in Ukiah high school auditorium this evening at eight o'clock.

Time To Act.

The meeting is sponsored by the Associated Farmers of Mendocino County, Inc. This Association was organized some weeks ago at a meeting where a group of farmers joined and elected a board of directors of nine members. No further steps have been taken to make this organization county wide in its scope and as all of our neighboring counties have membership including nearly every farmer and business man in their county, it is thought to be high time some action be taken in Mendocino county.

No Trouble Sought.

The farmers of California are faced with the following facts: "Labor is highly organized and there is a very definite plan to organize agricultural labor in the state. Just as long as these labor organizations have for their aims the improvement of pay, the shortening of working hours and the betterment of working conditions of the laborer, the farmers can have no quarrel with their plans. If, however, the individuals at the head of these labor organizations go beyond these legitimate aims, certainly no one can have any just objection to the organization of the farmers to protect their rights and property against subversive doctrines and practices of labor leaders. It is with this idea in view that we make the statement that every farmer and businessman in Mendocino county should join the Associated Farmers of Mendocino County. This has been done in 44 counties in this state."

Rancher To Talk.

The speaker for the evening for Wednesday's meeting is Phillip Bancroft. He is a farmer of Contra Costa county.

PAUL POULOS IN GREAT RUN

Remarkable Showing Made By Local Merchant

The election for school trustee of the grammar school here Friday brought out the largest vote ever polled for school trustee, 596, and resulted in Mrs. Charles Kasch being elected over Paul Poulos by a scant 26 votes and, all agree, the contest would have resulted otherwise were it not for the unfortunate sickness of Mrs. Paul Poulos, who was operated on in Stanford Hospital, San Francisco, last week for appendicitis, Mrs. Poulos' sickness making it impossible for Mr. Poulos to conduct a campaign.

All Were Out.

On the other hand the forces supporting Mrs. Kasch made a house-to-house canvass and had cars running throughout the short period the polls were open. This vote was gotten in early but the Poulos vote, consisting, in great measure, of working people, could not get away and the polls were closed before the hour their labors were over in the evening.

Could Not Vote.

Preparations for recording the vote were miserably inadequate and, at times, long lines of voters were seen waiting to ballot, many leaving because they could not wait until their time came to cast a vote.

AT GEWEHR HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gewehr, who recently purchased a home on Bush and Church streets from the Eugenia Cox estate had as house guests over the recent holiday, Mr. and Mrs. G. Harris and son-in-law, Frank Evans, of Sacramento.

A FIFTY YEAR AGO TRAGEDY COMES TO END

Last Of The George White Crowd Died At Willits

REIGNED RUTHLESSLY

Lynching Of George Littlefield Is Recalled By Death

The last chapter of the most exciting episode that ever took place in Mendocino county was closed when John M. Vinton died at his home in Willits last month. Mr. Vinton was a member of the gang that lynched Jack Littlefield almost half a century ago. The lynching occurred in southern Trinity county, just north of Round Valley, and the long drawn out trials broke that county.

Was A Cattle Baron.

About 50 years ago the late George White was, beyond question, the most picturesque character living in Mendocino county which at that time had a number of rugged individuals of the same type but none measured up to the stature of Mr. White. At that time Mr. White owned and controlled several hundred thousand acres of range and farming land in Mendocino, Trinity and Humboldt counties. These holdings extended from Hearst to Alder Point in Humboldt county and he ran thousands of head of cattle and sheep.

Used Iron Hand.

In order to take care of this stock Mr. White hired a great number of two-gun cowboys who were ruthless in enforcing George White's will. A large portion of the lands Mr. White controlled was government land and when a squatter tried to file on this vacant land he was either murdered, driven off or bought off. Mr. White was not the only man in the county that practiced these methods, but that is another story.

Married Several Times.

Women were the cause of George White's undoing for after his first wife died he married several times and his divorce trials occupied a large portion of the time of the superior court of Mendocino county and on account of his prominence all of the San Francisco papers kept staff reporters at Ukiah during these trials and all of the western papers carried long stories.

Transferred Property.

In order to keep Frankie White, his last wife from obtaining any of his property George White deeded most of his holdings to faithful henchmen to keep under cover until Mr. White could get out from under.

One Of The Murdered.

Wylackie John was murdered when he came out of the Covelo Hotel on account of this divorce trial.

Assassinated Enemy.

Jack Littlefield married a woman whose former husband held one of the valuable White properties and they refused to deed the land back to Mr. White. The gunmen then received orders to kill Littlefield but there was none of them dared to meet him face to face and shoot it out, for Jack Littlefield also had the reputation of being a two-gun man. These cowboys ambushed Mr. Littlefield on a trail and told him they were federal officers and showed a faked paper to prove it. Mr. Littlefield submitted to arrest and soon as he was disarmed the gang lynched him on a tree that was handy.

Claimed He Was Shot.

John Vinton only played a minor part and when he was tried he showed a body wound that he said was caused by Mr. Littlefield shooting him and he was finally turned loose. Men by the names of Van Horn and Williamson were convicted of murder and died in San Quentin. Ves Palmer was another man who was involved in the feud but not a member of the lynching party and he would have been killed, too, if the gang could have gotten him.

All Are Gone.

And now every member of that party is dead.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Szanik were in San Francisco this week where Mr. Szanik was called to protect a claim for injuries sustained and which was being passed upon by the State Industrial Accident Commission.

THE TRUTH "—is also found in frank confession of error."

AVERAGE MAN'S CREDO

THE OTHER DAY I read two paragraphs in different newspapers. The first was the following, which appeared in the always interesting editorial column of that fine newspaper, The Chico Enterprise, owned by my friend Florence J. O'Brien: "Four thousand years of recorded history quite plainly proclaim that man's solution to turmoil and strife will come, not through governmental or economic systems, but rather through an evolution in human nature. And sometimes the essence of the goal 'Good will toward men' is better understood by the humblest among us than by those in high places."

And then I saw in The Chronicle where that ever kindly natured man, Tom Maxwell, chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Napa county, and fellow bridge board member of mine, had taken time off to see that an afflicted woman destined to pass her life in an invalid chair, had been provided tickets, transportation and nurses' care in order that she might see the ceremonies attending the opening of The Golden Gate Bridge. Tom Maxwell, take a bow.

—A young lad assisting a feeble, little, gray-haired lady across the street; a news urchin leading a blind man to his destination; the jovial comment of the staid banker to the hunchback at the newsstand during the evening rush; a thoughtful conductor to an harassed first-trip passenger — these are but manifestations of a courtesy we all understand.

Kindliness, understanding and sympathy are the basic promptings of courtesy, and these qualities are the keynotes to happiness. The answer you give, the question you ask, means more if there is a smile behind it. Courtesy is an inward good will, a consideration for others. Keep your soul smiling!

If the Hitlers and Mussolinis, the statesmen and potentates and all the rest of us as well, understood and practiced the creed of an average man—Good will toward men—most of the world's ills would vanish quickly.

Of course human nature won't change overnight, or even much in a century or two, but, if we all do a little along this line, it will help a lot.

ARE TOO OPTIMISTIC

FRIENDS OF THE GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE, because of heavy traffic over the span the first few days of its operation, are taking it for granted the span is going to be a paying venture from now on. This confident feeling, however, is not justified to the extent its well-wishers believe it is. Do not forget a celebration was on and the receipts from the combined traffic brought to it by wide advertising drew thousands of machines. There, too, was a curiosity patronage—motorists who wanted to have the right to say they went over the bridge the first day it was open. On top of these two revenue-swelling attractions there was a pedestrian day that was a magnet of vast proportions. Good business rules make it necessary to realize that the traffic boosts the opening days brought were transient and will not occur again. To make the bridge pay the directors will have to have a road through the Presidio; the American Canyon road; a tunnel through Lombard street; the Sears Point road; full Lyons street connections; wide advertising of the span and an economical administration. Hopeful predictions will no more fill the strongbox of the Golden Gate bridge than will old women praying for rain bring the end of a drouth.

STRIKE AGAINST TIPPING

(From The Lodi News-Sentinel)

"TIPS FOR SLAVES—WAGES for American Workers!"

That challenging battlecry, paraded on placards and banners in several of California's more tumultous strike areas, may soon astonish even its creators with its effectiveness.

Adopted as a slogan to help workers win better wages, probably with little thought that tips would actually be eliminated, the idea has clicked with Mr. and Mrs. General Public.

Result: The citizenry, long weary of tipping for something for which it has already paid, is tipping its hat, but palming its dimes, quarters and half dollars.

The public has simply launched a strike all its own—against the tipping system!

Under the circumstances, don't be too surprised if your favorite restaurants, hotels, barber shops, beauty parlors, cafes, taxi cabs and hat checking establishments soon post "No Tipping" signs. The signs already have started to appear in restaurants in several California cities. And gratuities have dropped to a fraction of former returns in many of the haunts where the ancient practice of "crossing the palm" was formerly synonymous with service.

First indication of a general revolt against tipping came when taxi drivers in several areas won pay increases, quickly followed by increases in minimum fares. One cab company which increased its base fare reported that drivers' tips dropped off nearly 50 per cent during the first week of the increase.

If you will read the names of the officers at the head of the Unions on strike, when they issue statements, you will observe you have a hard time to pronounce them. In the main they are foreign conglomerations of letters and difficult to speak—they reflect the Communistic base of the strike and, regretfully, indicate the American worker is being herded by foreigners who, never in their lives before, enjoyed the blessings they do here today.

PROCEEDINGS OF SUPERIOR COURT

The following matters were acted upon in superior court the past week

Application has been filed by Ervin Triplett to establish the fact of death and terminate the life estate of Abe L. Triplett, who died May 27, 1937. The estate involved consists of lands near the intersection of Big River and Little Lake highways, previously conveyed to Eli Triplett of Colusa county and Ervin Triplett, of Ukiah, subject to the life estate of deceased. James E. Busch is petitioner's attorney. Hearing is set for June 11.

Would Have Estate.

Letters of administration and a decree setting aside to the surviving widow the entire estate of Porter H. Taylor has been filed by Ellen Taylor through the law offices of D. T. Bennitt of Willits. The estate consists of a dwelling at Willits with contiguous grounds, estimated at not exceeding $2500 in value. Heirs named are the petitioner, the surviving widow, of Santa Rosa; Grace Eyestone, daughter, Coalinga; Mabel May Carner, daughter, Santa Rosa. Hearing is set for June 11.

To Settle Title.

Action to quiet title and adjudicate adverse claims to parts of Lots 5 and 6, Block 2, Willits, has been brought by the Bank of Willits against William F. Whitney, Little Lake Lodge of Odd Fellows, O. H. P. Johnson, Hiram Willits and others. Complainant claims the land in question has been in its possession the past 20 years.

Ask For Letters.

Anna E. Hotell has filed her petition for letters testamentary in the estate of Melvin E. Hotell, her son, who died intestate in Santa Clara county August 16, 1936, leaving an estate of personal property and adjusted service bonds. Decedent died without other kin than his father and mother, D. E. Hotell and Anna E. Hotell of Ukiah.

Widow Makes Claim.

Jean W. Hawn, as executrix of the estate of Edward Gambrel, deceased, is defendant in an action brought by Mrs. Ann Prager Gambrel to collect $2250 claimed due her from the estate. Mrs. Gambrel claims that on January 1 of this year she sold to her husband 50 tons of chopped alfalfa hay at $25 per ton, and that no part of the debt has been paid and the claim, presented to the executrix for settlement, was rejected. Judgment is asked for the principal sum, together with costs of suit and that the judgment establish a claim against the estate, to be paid in due order of the administration.

Is Asking Damages.

A highway accident which occurred February 20, about six miles west of Navarro, is made the basis for a damage suit filed by Adolph Viviani of that section against R. K. Donaldson. Charging reckless, careless and negligent operation of the Donaldson automobile, which collided with the car driven by Mr. Viviani, $2500 and costs of suit are asked for injuries received to left shoulder, neck and head of complainant and a cut in his left arm which severed his muscles and veins. Plaintiff claims he has been totally disabled since the time of the accident and is still unable to perform any work.

Sidelights of Sadness

Being incidents connected with California's State Prisons as observed by A. R. O'Brien, editor of The Republican Press, who is a director of the State Board of Prisons of California.

WHAT "GENIUS" DOES

He was jail scarred. Ever since I have been in California I have heard about him. All that had come to me concerning the prisoner was bad. In his heyday he was ever restless, a bundle of criminal dynamite.

The year 1914 is a long time back, but, even then, he was in trouble, the two following years he was in a number of crime escapades and 1917 found him a confirmed young outlaw at Preston. He escaped from Ione; he was recaptured and, finally, in March 1918 he was discharged. His first big job was when he entered an Alameda Bank with a companion, the latter armed with a gun. The convict had a bottle in his hand from which he had removed the cork. The companion trained his weapon on the bank employes and the prisoner about whom I write threatened he would throw acid in the face of anyone who made an outcry—afterwards it was discovered the "acid" was ammonia. The pair got $2,000 in the robbery. They had stolen a car to get away from the Bank and this machine was found in San Francisco. I checked through his narrative and saw he had been in 17 different jams—bank robberies, highway robberies, burglaries, forgeries and so on. From 1914 on he had escaped six different times from prisons. The last time he made a break was at San Quentin when he used a rope which broke and plunged him to the pavement, breaking both of his legs and, strange to say, this breaking of his legs with a subsequent long hospital confinement, seemed to have broken him away from his criminal tendencies.

When he held up banks he operated with a negro companion. The latter was sent to prison with him, but the pair never spoke to each other, the negro asserting his pal had double-crossed him. I saw him near the end of his term. He was an aged man in appearance, although he was then only 38. He had completed grammar school before getting into trouble and while free he did not study but, despite this, in prison, he wrote "Stealing Through Life," "Ladies of the Mob"—this story starred Clara Bow—and countless short stories from which he derived a large royalty. Then he switched to historic subjects and produced a novel of the Byzantine Empire, a story of Theodora, Empress of Justinian.

He had on file a pile of letters pleading for his parole and the remarkable thing about these letters was they came from some of the outstanding men in the various walks of life throughout California and, as I read them, I could not help but condemn the men who wrote them. They pleaded for the liberation of this inmate and they knew little about the man whose release they were seeking—They knew, by the books he had produced, he was a genius and they let it go at that and, probably, with the next breath they would be found condemning the Parole Board members, if some prisoner to whom parole had been granted, made a misstep and violated his parole. Genius triumphed, however, and the author-bank robber has been paroled.

I wish him well and hope he does not again offend. He has tuberculosis and his loyal wife is going with him to a ranch in the mountains of northern California and there he will continue to write.

One thing in this prisoner's career I noticed. It is proof the contention you hear so much about that a man once sent to prison becomes a hopeless, ruined human being, is not correct.

Here was this inmate, an almost illiterate youth, sent to San Quentin, who did his stretch and came out an educated author who realized a fortune from his writings.

I have always contended it is not the misfortune a man is in, it is what is in a man that writes his final score.

Fourth Of July Celebration At Ft. Bragg Being Lined Up

According to C. F. Schaeffer, general chairman for the Legion's Fourth of July program, everything is progressing very favorably at the present time.

Merchants Finance It.

The Fort Bragg business men have responded quite generously to an appeal for funds with which to put the celebration on, and cash prizes for the many athletic events and numerous contests are assured.

To Have Pet Parade.

Additional prizes will be awarded winners in the Pet Parade, with the Home Owned businesses offering one prize of $25.

Not To Conflict.

Point Arena, too, will have its celebration, but, in order not to cross wires, the program on the south coast will be held July 3. Many doubtless intend to take in both affairs.

HAD COAST OUTING

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rohlff enjoyed the cool coast breezes at Fort Bragg last week, motoring there Tuesday and returning Wednesday.

Mrs. Harry W. Kemp, of Blue Lakes, was here Wednesday stocking up with supplies for Blue Lakes Resort which is destined to have an excellent season.

Willits will greet its Frontier Days patrons with a new grandstand next month at the celebration.

Point Arena is to hold its Manchester-Point Arena celebration July 3.

The Marwedel Camp for boys on the Noyo river will open in the next few days.

The tax delinquency list of Mendocino county was smaller this year than for some time past.

Classified advertising in The Republican Press rarely fails to get quick, satisfactory results.

Greyhound Stages have routed their busses across the Golden Gate bridge, saving 20 minutes running time between Ukiah and the Bay.

The Jennings Tent Show is playing Fort Bragg.

Mendocino's float in the Fiesta parade took third prize and was a lovely creation.

The famous Lucerne Ballroom on Clear Lake has been placed on the auction block for sale.

The fame of Orr's Springs is spreading and that popular resort is catering to many guests.

The overcrowded condition of the State Hospital, Talmage, is becoming serious.

The American Legion will handle Fort Bragg's Fourth of July celebration.

Heavy gloves worn by the lady saved her from worse effects. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buckman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckman motored to Kelseyville Tuesday evening. On the way over the mountain the men killed a rattlesnake that crossed the road just ahead of them and coming home after dark got the thrill of a lifetime when, on rounding a curve, the lights were reflected on a huge panther crossing the road and which quickly scrambled up the bank to the left of them. This panther has been seen and heard a number of times near the scene of its appearance but the motorists of Tuesday evening were treated to their first sight of the animal, which they do not care to have repeated at such close quarters.

OLIVE E. BUSCH IS PRESIDENT OF N. D. G. W.

Native Daughters of the Golden West will meet at I. O. O. F. hall tonight to receive a charter for Ukiah Parlor and to install officers elected at Friday's meeting as follows: Mrs. Olive E. Busch, president; Mrs. Katherine Sloper, first vice-president; Miss Alta Dillingham, second vice-president; Mrs. Leila Williams, third vice-president; Mrs. Ed Zimmerman, marshal; Miss Florence Hildreth, inside sentinel; Mrs. Alberta Kehoe, outside sentinel; Mrs. Bernice Faas, secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Bechtol, treasurer. Trustees are Mrs. Lulu Holtz, Mrs. Alma Zimmerman and Mrs. Avis Phillips.

Grand President Mrs. Florence Danforth-Boyle of Oroville will be present; the Fort Bragg Parlor will put on ritualistic work, and members of Santa Rosa Parlor will also attend. Aiding in the preliminary work toward founding of the local parlor are Harold Zimmerman, grand inside sentinel of the Grand Parlor of California; William Brucker, junior past president of the Ukiah Parlor of Native Sons; Albert Bechtol, local past president, and Cecil Coleman, local first vice-president. They have received excellent co-operation from Mrs. Busch and it is felt entirely fitting she should be first president of the newly formed Parlor.

It is esential at least 30 Native Daughters be present for the granting of the charter at tonight's meeting. Native Sons of Ukiah are honoring the newly formed group with a 6:30 banquet preceding installation ceremonies.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

The list of officers installed at the Wednesday evening meeting of the Junior Auxiliary as announced last week was completed with the addition of Betty German as secretary-treasurer, her election taking place at a short meeting just prior to installation ceremonies. Formals of dainty flower tints were worn by those filling the posts, Angie Martinelli stepping into the presidency from which Barbara Conoly was retiring, Audrey Faas being made vice-president, Barbara Laviletta sergeant at arms, Bubbles Roberts chaplain and Helen Salls historian. Barbara Conoly was presented a silver bracelet bearing the Auxiliary emblem and the year she headed the junior branch, 1937. Mrs. Maud Roberts, Junior chairman, made the presentation of the bracelet, specially designed at her request. Mrs. Ardis Conoly, who instructed the girls in their drills, played the march and Mrs. Esther Lowe escorted them as honorary sergeant-at-arms. The Junior Auxiliary enjoyed a social hour and delicious refreshments prepared for them by the Auxiliary following formalities, having invited a number of friends to join them for the party.

The Juniors pledged $1 to the ambulance fund, to which the Auxiliary added $5. In charge of the ladies social gathering were Mrs. Ardis Conoly, chairman; Mrs. Frema Matthews, Mrs. Carrie Edwards and Mrs. Cecil Silver.

ANDERSON VALLEY CLUB

Mrs. Carrie A. Van Voast was hostess at the last meeting of the season for Anderson Valley Club members when they assembled at her home for a charming social evening last week. The guests were delighted and entertained by the glowing account of the Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta given by Mrs. Emily Miller, who had just returned from the celebration where she had cleverly represented an Indian squaw on the Mendocino county float. She was very proud of the lovely girls who went with her and gave full credit to those who set the stage for the tableau, even to renewing all the greenery before Saturday's parade. Co-hostesses of the evening who assisted in serving refreshments were Mrs. Olive E. Busch and Mrs. Edna Holliday. The first meeting of the fall season will be held Tuesday, October 5, at the home of Mrs. William F. Ornbaun.

ODETTE VALETTE IS BETROTHED TO "REG" STINEHOFF

Betrothal of Miss Odette Valette to Reginald Stinehoff was announced at a family party at the home of the bride-elect's parents Monday of last week, a beautiful diamond ring gayly reflecting the happiness of the young couple. Miss Valette is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Valette of Ukiah, a sister of Mrs. Blanche Mineau, Mrs. Nelson Tracy, Miss Marcelle Valete, Ferdinand and Henry Valette. She has lived here since a very young child, graduating from the local grammar school and high school. Mr. Stinehoff is the son of Mrs. Susie Stinehoff of Redwood Valley and is an officer of the State Highway Patrol, stationed at the San Francisco Bay bridge. Plans are for the wedding to take place in the late summer, following which the young people will make their home in San Francisco. Both members of the engaged couple have a host of friends in this valley, where they are popular members of the younger set.

VISIT WITH SONS

Dr. Richard A. Van der Las of the Presbyterian church left Sunday for a visit of several days with his two sons in San Francisco. His eldest son, Richard A. Van der Las, Jr., is manager of the foreign travel bureau of the American Express Company, last year taking 22 Standard Oil officials on a tour of 37,000 miles through Egypt, Arabia and Persia, 15,000 miles of which were by airplane; and this year his wife is enjoying a tour given her by a French line. The youngest son is Harold Ross Van der Las, of the Ship Owners Association of the Pacific Coast. He has recently purchased a home in Mill Valley which his father is looking forward to seeing. Commuting via Golden Gate Bridge was the deciding point in acquiring the new domicile. Dr. Van der Las will also meet friends from Seattle who are stopping at Oakland.

SHOWER FOR JUNE BRIDE

Miss Marjorie Anderson (who became Mrs. Jack Woodson Sunday) was recipient of numerous gifts at a shower given Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. G. Scott. Refreshments were served at a table prettily centerpieced by a bouquet of pink rosebuds and holding a nutcup sheltered by a tiny umbrella of the same color at each place to carry out the shower motif. Invited to the charming party were Mrs. Paul Anderson, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Ray Kern, Mrs. Robert Ford, Mrs. Ray Enright, Mrs. Barbara Foutch, Miss Margaret Anker, Miss Thelma Hull, Miss Irene Sandelin, Miss Clara Slocum, Miss Audrey Doak, and Miss Helen Anderson who assisted the hostess.

CO-HOSTESSES AGAIN

Mrs. Guy Redwine and Mrs. Lottie Collins entertained friends at the third of a series of lovely bridge luncheons Saturday, the party being held at the home of Mrs. Collins. Guests were seated at eight tables which held dainty bouquets of wildflowers during the luncheon hour, while roses were artistically arranged throughout the rooms. Mrs. Edward M. Sponagle won first prize and Mrs. Fred Bosworth second, the awards being beautiful water color landscapes of local scenes painted by Mrs. Redwine and truly "prized" by the winners.

"7th HEAVEN" TUESDAY'S BENEFIT SHOW

"Seventh Heaven" was found in a garret by Simone Simon and James Stewart, and may be reached by you at The State Theatre Tuesday evening, June 15, when the Catholic Ladies League presents its benefit show. Actually, the only time the famous and charming French star was in the Montmartre district of Paris, so vividly and picturesquely recreated, was as the little street waif, Diane, in this film—supposedly in 1914. Chico (James Stewart) escapes from the drabness of his work in the huge subterranean sewer beneath the city, as well as his attitude of atheist, when he is lifted ecstatically to the very stars by the presence of Diane, who he is sheltering after rescuing her from gendarmes, who would arrest her for throwing wine in the face of a customer who annoyed her. Called to the war, he pledges to return to her in spirit at 11 o'clock every day. This tenderest love story of the hour leads to a powerful conclusion beautifully portrayed. Bring your dimes for "heavenly" home-made candies will be on sale at the door to make the treat complete. Mrs. Ellen McCarthy and Miss Katherine Gobbi form the committee in charge of the evening.

WILL GO TO EUREKA

Plans for a trip to Eureka next weekend will be formulated by Chapter I of the Girl Reserves when they meet at the home of their adviser, Mrs. Max Stowe, this evening. The girls will be guests of Rev. Irvin Askin, of the Presbyterian church there, and members of The Young Peoples Society will be hostesses to them over night. Saturday evening they will present two playlets to the group. Sunday morning they will attend church in a body with Girl Reserves of Eureka, driving home later in the day after enjoying a picnic lunch. The Vevoda Mootr Company furnishes one car for the trip, Mrs. Stowe will take her car, and probably the mother of one of the members will also drive several of the girls north. "Kentucky Philosophy" is the minstrel skit in which Frances Hubbard will appear as the young mistress of the colonial mansion, Shirley Hopper as Sis Hannah Jane, Mrs. Stowe as Aunt Mirandy in whose cabin the scene is laid, Helen Houdeshell as William Josephus Vetters, Edda Fracchia as Matilda Johnsing, and Margaret Somerset as End Man. Betty Daut, June Daut and Phyllis Wise will also present a short act. A similar trip will be made to San Francisco in the near future when the Y. W. C. A. will play hostess.

Girl Reserves of Chapter I have been invited by Jobs Daughters to attend their installation ceremonies June 14, and to bring partners for the delightful dance to follow.

SO HUMAN AFTER ALL

Is Grace Moore, garbed in house slippers and a work shirt, singing "Minnie the Moocher," a new type of role for her, in "When You're In Love," with Cary Grant, now playing at The State Theatre today and tomorrow (Wednesday - Thursday) on the same program with "Jim Hanvey, Detective," starring Guy Kibbe and Tom Brown.

FETE COUPLE ON GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating their golden wedding anniversary Sunday of last week with a family dinner followed by an open house, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alfred Gowell, received congratulations and gifts from a number of intimate friends. An abundance of roses and other spring flowers graced the rooms where guests were received and refreshments served.

Members of pioneer settlers of this valley where both were born, Mr. and Mrs. Gowell were married at the home of the bride's family, the Berry Wright place. Mr. Gowell was long associated with the lumber business of the county, both as a salesman and manager. Relatives greeting the honored couple were three daughters, Mrs. J. A. Jensen and Mrs. T. C. Silverthorne of Vallejo, and Mrs. Fred Nelson, principal of the Willits grammar school, accompanied by their husbands and baby Barbara Gael Jensen and young Teddy Silverthorne; a brother of Mr. Gowell, T. Regret was expressed that Mrs. James Eddy, a charter member of Potter Valley, could not be present. Charming features of the program were community singing with Mrs. Wildia E. Busch playing the piano accompaniments, and the reading of original verse by Mrs. Olive E. Busch, who had composed the lines in commemoration of the club anniversary. Decorations were unusually beautiful, pink sweet peas and deep rose Clarkia

Chapter 6—Wedding History

Etiquette Almost As Important As The Groom

Passing from the ancient customs, many of which can be recognized in their slightly altered form in the modern ceremony, let's consider the points of interest to the participants in a wedding of this day and age. The modern bride and groom and their families want to follow the rules of wedding etiquette, and no matter how many weddings they may have attended, a thousand and one questions arise when it comes time for the one for which they are personally responsible. How should things be done? When? By whom?

This information can be obtained from your jeweler, who is an authority on wedding etiquette and is glad to be of service in solving such problems.

Wedding gifts should always be sent to the bride, even if the givers are friends of the groom.

Gifts should reach a bride about a week before the wedding.

The bride-to-be should write notes of thanks for her gifts as soon as possible after she receives them. She should do this before the wedding. It is not considered good form for her to use printed "Thank you" cards; brief notes are better. Notes should name the article for which thanks are being sent, such as, "your lovely silver cake basket," or whatever the case may be.

SMITH THE JEWELER says read "Presents Expected" in Next Week's Paper.

PINE RIDGE PUPILS IN FINE PROGRAM

The regular business and social meetings of the Ladies' Presbyterian Society and Missionary Society were held at the church Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. James E. Scott presiding at the former and Mrs. Max Stowe for the Missionary Society. Mrs. C. W. Bradford was the honored member of the day, her birthday being observed by greetings, and the reading of her horoscope by Miss Daisy Rogers. A huge angel cake, specially baked by Mrs. George P. Anderson, was presented Mrs. Bradford who generously shared it with all present. Mrs. J. W. Cowen and Mrs. C. N. Snyder were hostesses.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Stowe, who presented pupils of the Pine Ridge district in a demonstration of a recent vacation Bible class held there by Rev. Max Stowe through the co-operation of their school teacher, Mrs. Leila Williams. The program included a reading of "God Is Love" by Marietta Burnham; a trumpet duet of "Oh Come All Ye Faithful" by Robert and Henry Signett; a humorous pantomime played by George and Russell Burnham, Robert and Frank Westfall and Robert and Henry Signett; and memory work accomplished in the five-day school demonstrated by the entire group, including Dorothy and Jimmy Signett, Edith and Martin Brush, Jacqueline Ostini and Sidney Williams.

ATTORNEYS OUTING

Members of the Bar Association met for a three-day outing over the weekend at Ridgeworth with Harry Ridgeway, division manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric company, as host at the dude ranch in which he enjoys a partnership. Jaunts over winding trails, fishing and games of horseshoe were diversions which whiled away the carefree hours. Judge J. C. Hurley, vice-president of the association was highest officer of the local club present, Attorney Frank W. Taft, president, being forced to remain home with a severe cold. The group included Attorney Henry C. Spurr, secretary; Judge Benjamin C. Jones, of Lakeport, Districtt Attorney James E. Busch, District Attorney Burt Busch of Lake county, Attorneys Lilburn Gibson, Irving Brazier, Charles M. Mannon, Wayne Burke, J. R. Thomas, Hale McCowen, Charles Kasch and J. E. Pemberton of Ukiah; George Armand Faraday of Fort Bragg, Attorney Rumwell of Palo Alto and Judge W. D. L. Held.

UKIAH GIRL WED AT A PRETTY JUNE WEDDING

At a lovely Sunday afternoon ceremony Miss Marjorie Anderson was married to Jack Woodson in the Christian church, with Rev. Theodore Matlock officiating. Gowned in white net with a filmy tulle veil falling in graceful folds and carrying a bouquet of gardenias, the bride made a charming picture as she walked down the aisle on the arm of her father. Miss Helen Anderson was her sister's maid of honor and was charming in a dress of pink net, while Miss Irene Sandelin as bridesmaid was becomingly gowned in blue net, mixed bouquets of sweet peas and roses being carried by the two. Merle Butler was entrusted with the privilege of handing the ring to the groom at the right moment. Ladies of the congregation, of which the bride has long been a member, graciously decorated the church with a profusion of flowers. Miss Anderson attended local schools, graduating from high school three years ago and later receiving her diploma from the Burbank College of Commerce at Santa Rosa. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson, a granddaughter of Robert Anderson, and a niece of Mrs. R. A. Enright, Mrs. George Austin, Miss May Anderson and Fred Anderson of this city. Mr. Woodson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodson of Long Beach, who were unable to be present at the wedding due to a conflict with arrangements made for a trip east. The young couple will make their home in Long Beach following their return from a honeymoon north.

BRIDGE LINKS 80-MILE LOOP

Navy Yard Was Open For Inspection By Visitors

The Golden Gate Bridge is the last link in the 80-mile scenic loop of San Francisco Bay, a tour introduced on "Vallejo Day," May 30, when Rear Admiral C. S. Kempff, U. S. N., Commandant of Mare Island, threw the Navy Yard open and invited the public to come there. The Sears Point Cutoff was toll free for the day and visitors were permitted to cross the $1,000,000 causeway leading to the huge naval establishment. Some of the interesting facts printed on the invitation are quoted as follows:

Sizeable Plant.

"Mare Island Navy Yard, the largest industrial plant west of Chicago, is California's biggest individual customer. Annually, it uses in excess of $20,000,000 in materials, and disburses a payroll of $10,000,000. From the date of its founding by the famous Admiral D. G. Farragut, Mare Island has been the most historically interesting naval establishment on the west coast.

Named For White Mare.

"From a white mare belonging to General M. G. Vallejo, the island got its name. General Vallejo was transporting horses and cattle across Carquinez straits aboard a crude ferry constructed of oil barrels and planks when a sudden squall struck. The horse went overboard and swam to Mare Island, where it was rescued several days later by Vallejo, who named the place Isla De La Yegua.

Has Done Much.

"The navy yard has built more than eighty ships for the U. S. Navy, among them the battleship California and the cruisers San Francisco and Chicago."

The Lucerne Golf Course Was Sold

Navajo Craft Designs Used in Super Chief

FROM the Navajos of the picturesque southwest, the Santa Fe drew the inspiration for the design of its new stainless steel streamline train, the Super Chief, newest of the luxury trains in the west.

The rich colors associated with the country through which the train travels have been used as the background for decorations, faithfully reproducing the art and craft of the Navajo Indians. Sand paintings, silver craft and weaving have been skillfully combined with rare woods and modern design to give the train all the beauty and color of the desert.

The train was built by Edward G. Budd Manufacturing Company of Philadelphia. The locomotive was furnished by the Electro-Motive Corporation of Chicago.

Throughout the train, each compartment has its own color scheme and arrangement, and each has been designed so that suites may be formed by use of connecting doors.

In the cocktail and observation lounges has been preserved much of the beauty of Navajo life. Sand paintings have been used in the pier panels to illustrate the characters which occur in the story of Dsilyi 'Noyani, the "Myth of the Mountain Chant." All of the figures are executed in native colored sands and charcoal.

Coverings are reproductions of rare Navajo museum pieces, and lighting fixtures have been adapted from the fourth painting of Dsilyi 'Noyani. The "Plumed Arrows" have been fashioned into glow lights and a rear table lamp employs the sacrificial knife stem for a base with its shade fashioned of goat skin.

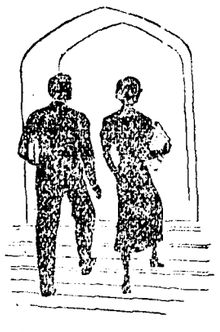
Commencement



This bank extends its congratulations to the young people who are graduating from the Ukiah schools.

And to those who will be starting out in their life's work, we would like to say a few words on savings:

The good things of life generally require at least some capital. A home, a business of your own, complete education for your children, a contented old age; these things cost money, and they are the healthy, normal desires of normal and ambitious people. It is true that some people inherit money for these things, but they are very few in number. The great majority has to accumulate it, and the only way yet devised to accumulate capital is to save out of current income for a starting wedge.

From many years of experience, this bank can assure you that if a man or woman will consistently deposit some small part of his earnings each week or each month, he will build up a capital for his protection and advancement.

EVERY TIME you STOP, you can waste enough gasoline to GO one-third of a mile. That's what runs up today's driving costs.

To cut down the high cost of stop-and-go driving, Shell engineers have developed a way to balance gasoline. By completely rearranging its chemical structure, this "balancing" process makes Super-Shell "digestible" for your motor . . . just as cooking makes food digestible for you.

"Motor-digestible" is the best way you can describe this new-type gasoline.

Your motor gets the full benefit of Super-Shell's high energy content . . . you get the savings!

There's a Shell dealer in your neighborhood. Stop there next time you need gas.

SUNDAY RECITAL

A musical recital by pupils of the Albertinum School of Music was enjoyed Sunday by about 50 guests who were assembled in the spacious and attractive girls' recreation room. Mary Giraudo introduced the numbers with charming poise, announcing that some taking part in the program had studied only a few months and others for several years. All the selections were much enjoyed, from the more advanced pieces, delightfully rendered, to the simpler ones played sweetly and with sureness, the program being varied by a trio, two duets, a song with four voices and a final number in which all the music pupils took part. They were presented in the following order: "Carmen" overture by G. Bizet — Rhea Wenglein, Helen Gibson, Betty Dunham; "Happy Hours," by Streabbog — Virginia Morris; "Joyous Song" duet—Claire McQuilkin and Betty Kuhns; "Good Night," by B. Wagness—Mary Giraudo; "Imperial March"—Eleanore Sotter; "Minuet," by Bach—Helen Gibson; "First Sorrow," by R. Schumann — Betty German; "Where Go The Boats," duet by Paul Ambrose—Dorothy Jean Pioda and Eleanore Sotter; "Summer Song," quartette—Betty Dunham, Helen Gibson, Rhea Wenglein and Betty German; "Valse," by A. Durand—Marylou Hildreth; "Witches Dance," by J. De Lancey — Betty Dunham; "Tarantelle,' by S. Heller—Rhea Wenglein; "Serenade," by F. Schubert—Dorothy Jean Pioda; "Music," recitation and song by F. Faber — all the music pupils.

Following the exercises the young performers withdrew to the central building where a lovely party had been prepared for them. They were seated at a table prettily decorated with three low bowls of pink sweet peas, fluffy pink nut cups and streamers of the same color floating from the chandeliers above. After the delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake, lemonade and other goodies had been served, each pupil was presented an attractive gift daintily wrapped and tied with pink ribbon.

WELCOMED HOME

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Kirwin and daughters, Nancy and Joan, arrived home Thursday, motoring here from Omaha and Minnesota, where they had been visiting relatives. Mrs. Kirwin left in February with the two girls when she learned her mother, Mrs. George D. Williams, of Omaha, was seriously ill. The patient having shown marked improvement, Mr. Williams was able to care for her and Mrs. Kirwin felt free to return with Dr. Kirwin, who left a month ago to visit his parents at Morris Minn. The trip home was made in a new Oldsmobile Eight, delivery of the car being made in Omaha through the Vevoda Motor Sales Company of this city. Return was via Cheyenne, Salt Lake, Sacramento, San Francisco and the Golden Gate Bridge.

PASSED UNDER BRIDGE

Accepting an invitation from the Panama Pacific Steamship Line to board its steamer "Virginia" for a tour of San Francisco Bay Monday, Harry M. Burke and his nephew, Andrew L. Johnson, Jr., went through the Golden Gate under the new span, back into the bay, over to San Quentin and south to Hunters Point, where they had a fine view of the fleet. A delicious buffet lunch was served guests of the line who were aboard for the interesting outing.

ON SHORT VISIT

Mrs. James A. Vassar and son, James, of San Francisco, and Miss Bernice Vassar, who has been attending San Francisco State College, enjoyed a week at the A. F. Redemeyer ranch above Laytonville. On return to the city they visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Vassar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Elliott, being tastefully combined.

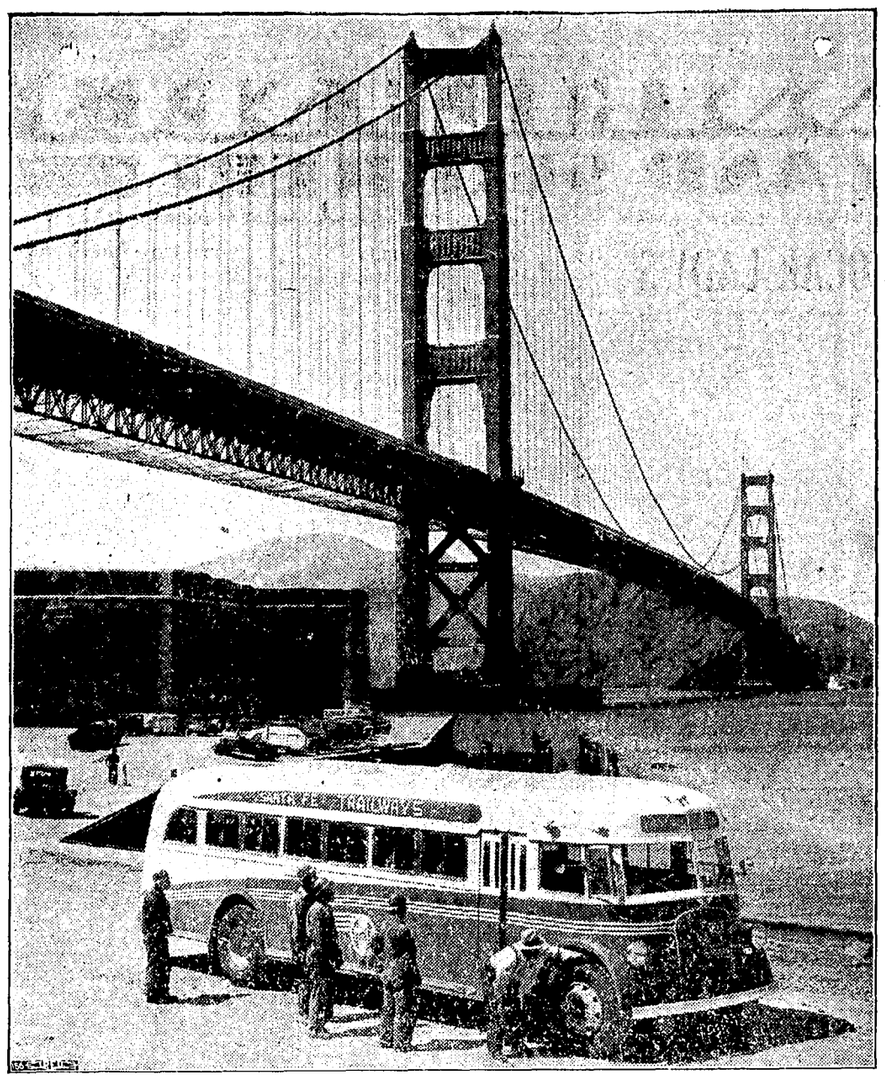
WED WEEK AGO

Miss Pansy Brush was married to Norman F. Graham in Santa Rosa Wednesday last. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Brush of this city and a sister of Joe and Irvin Brush.

TO TOUR NORTHWEST

Mr. and Mrs. William Bromley are leaving the last of the week for a trip to British Columbia.

Mrs. Will Van Dyke enjoyed a visit with her sister and her sister's husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Risse, of Hollister, Saturday.



Fort Winfield Scott, once Mighty Master of the Golden Gate, today fades into insignificance in the giant shadows of the world's greatest bridge. The old Fort, started 1854, completed 1861, dismantled 1880, cost $2,000,000; 164 guns bristling from its walls of brick, guarded the Golden Gate. In its day, one of the Wonders of the West, today it is but a Symbol of the Past: of the days of Sailing Ships and Pioneers.

High over the old Fort, men have flung a spider web of steel; the world's largest and most magnificent single span suspension bridge. Twenty years ago, the Golden Gate Bridge was a visionary's dream—today, an actuality.

The main span, 4,200 feet long; the deck at center, 266 feet above high water; length of entire project 3¾ miles, including approach viaducts. Height of towers, 746 feet above water level. The two 36½ inch cables, largest ever spun, required 80,000 miles of wire, weigh 22,000 tons, are held at their anchorage ends by 128,000,000 pounds of concrete.

Excavations, principally of rock, amounted to 553,000 cubic yards, equal to volume of material removed from a shaft 10 feet square and 25 miles deep. The structure cost $35,000,000, required approximately 4 years to build.

FULL SENIOR WEEK PROGRAM

Father Quinlan Gave Baccalaureate Sermon

Senior week started Sunday evening with the baccalaureate sermon to members of the class when Father Celestine Quinlan addressed the graduates at the high school auditorium, taking as his text "On the Threshold of Life." He stated every young man and young woman should keep constantly in view that certain aim or goal they wish to reach, and in order to attain success should choose a life-work congenial to their tastes, education and capacities.

The Way To Win.

The two elements to be cultivated as factors sure to win the race for success, he said, are strength and skill; strength being the power to accomplish something when directed by the will, and skill the familiar knowledge of some art, business or trade united with a readiness and a dexterity in its application. Father Quinlan's sound advice was simply stated and interestingly amplified. He summed up by saying: "Choose then, my dear students, your life work; choose it with care. Stick to it. Learn its details thoroughly; learn everything connected with it. Aim at progression in it always. Try ever to improve on your former efforts." Quoting Polonius' famous counsel to his son Laertes, from "Hamlet," he closed the address. Rev. Mark Pike gave the impressive invocation and prayer, and a choral group sang "Golden Glow," directed by Robert L. Sharp.

Class Night.

Last night entertainment was presented in the auditorium by members of the graduating class in the form of a musical skit, entitled "Swing Keeps The Devil Away." Miss Dorothy Diven was student director and costuming was done by other members of the class, accompaniment being by the Rhythm Rascals with selections introduced into the program by the band.

Senior Ball.

Japanese lanterns and other Oriental touches will decorate the gymnasium where the senior ball will be held this evening and dancing will be to strains furnished by Harry Littleton's orchestra. Miss Barbara Moulton is chairman of arrangements.

Commencement.

The graduating class will appear in all the dignity of academic caps and gowns to receive their diplomas Friday evening in the auditorium, the boys wearing black and the girls white. Graduates are Harold H. Ashton, Julia Carmelita Broggi, Louise Byrnes, Virginia Dal Posso, Marie Elizabeth Daut, Richard S. Davis, Veltha L. Davis, Dorothy Isabelle Dennen, Dorothy Margretta Diven, Geraldine June Elliott, James Earl Ford, Mary Ford, Olive Ford, Virginia Ford, Raymond F. Foster, Adelina Graziano, Andrew J. PRINCIPAL IS ILL, RESIGNS

T. S. Van Vleet Of Redwood Valley Is To Retire

Special Correspondence of The Press

REDWOOD VALLEY, June 8.—Graduation exercises of the local elementary school will be held Monday evening June 14. It is the largest class in many years. Those who are to pass on to a higher education and who will receive their diplomas are Toline Aldo, John Howland, Hazel Williams, Wilda Boyd, Edith Laforet, Mary Orr, Roselyn Gullickson, Frances Thompson, Roy Stafane, Francis Wise, Teddy Torngren, Dorothy Britton, Leta Lalonis, Doris Dance, Helen Stillwell, Beulah Dance, Helen Peaslee, Gene Locatelli, Kenny Stillwell, Albert Dockins.

Principal Resigns.

At a recent school trustee meeting the resignation of Principal T. S. Van Vleet was accepted. The rest of the present faculty, H. Reilley, Harriet Finne and Florence Rains were employed for the coming year. H. Reilly will assume the position as principal and teacher of the seventh and eighth grades. This will leave a vacancy for the fifth and sixth grades which as yet has not not been filled. Mr. Van Vleet, who has been principal of the school the past four years, has been a successful instructor and, with his ability and years of teaching, ranks high as an educator, but owing to his health has found it necessary to give up teaching.

It Was His Birthday.

A joint birthday dinner party was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Britton when L. M. Manger, of Redwood Valley, and Mrs. Jack Pearson, of Clear Lake Oaks, celebrated their birthday. Mr. Manger is the father of Mrs. Britton and was 73 years old. Mr. and Mrs. Britton and Mrs. Manger, her mother, who were hostesses, welcomed the following guests: Aladina Martinella, Oscar Martinella and son Lewis, Nello Papucci, Ukiah, Mrs. George Bowers and George Manger, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Reed, Miss Dot Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Britton, of Redwood Valley. The afternoon was passed in dancing, with Nello Papucci and George Manger furnishing the music and the social hours were concluded with felicitations and good wishes to the guests of honor.

Had An Outing.

The 4-H Boys, 14 in number, had a real get-together picnic Friday afternoon which lasted until Saturday afternoon. Harry Reilley, the leader, had planned the little camping trip for the boys at Jack Smith creek, near the J. Lee Smith ranch. A. J. Frye was left in charge of the boys. Fishing was the main sport.

Lady Was Stricken.

Mrs. W. Stillwell, who lives near Laughlin, was taken suddenly ill a week ago and was taken to the County Hospital for medical attention. She gradually grew worse and the third day was taken to Howard Memorial Hospital, where Dr. Babcock found the appendix had burst a few days before. He performed an emergency operation and although her condition is very grave and Dr. Babcock with two special nurses, is doing everything possible in the case, Mrs. Stillwell has endured intense suffering throughout her illness. She is the mother of nine children, the oldest but 15 years. Her friends and those who have been much interested in the case are hoping for her own sake and that of her devoted family she will recover.

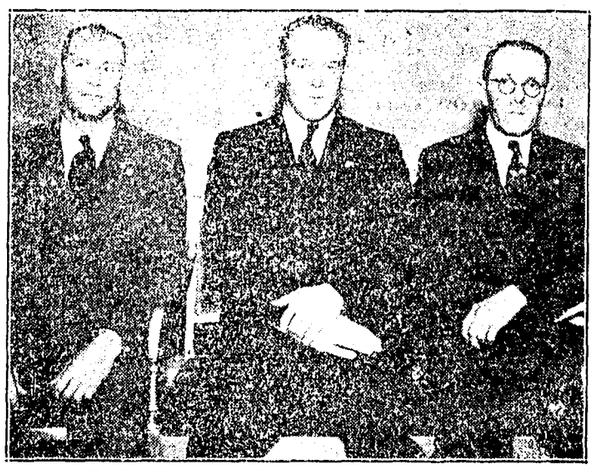
Rev. and Mrs. Max Stowe were visitors at Sunday school, Mr. Stowe having charge of the church service following Sunday school hour.

Mendocino Redwood Adorns A Cafeteria

(Mendocino Beacon)

At the famous Golden Rule Cafeteria, Los Angeles, is a beautiful section of a 1400-year-old Sempervirens Redwood which receives a great deal of attention from thousands of people who weekly enjoy the novel and friendly cafeteria services. The redwood, according to a sign, was presented by the Union Lumber Company, and was cut on the company's holdings in Mendocino county. As the dining room at Clifton's has been decorated to resemble a forest, with redwoods from Santa Cruz ornamenting it, an old mill wheel and other interesting attractions the Sempervirens section is an appropriate feature and conveys a thought of the majesty and beauty of the Mendocino forests.

Redwood Empire Men Attend Housing School



OAKLAND.—Building materials dealers and salesmen from the Redwood Empire are among the 200 building industry representatives who are attending a Housing Guild training conference here, under the auspices of Johns-Manville. During the 10-day meeting a plan will be outlined for organizing local Housing Guilds to serve as headquarters for information and service in the interest of better housing. In the picture, left to right, are: E. L. Baccaglio, San Rafael; Frank N. Little, Larkspur; and Herman Runkel, Ukiah.

Mrs. K. J. Neeley and Mrs. Durkin motored up from Guerneville Thursday for a brief visit in the R. Yarbrough home.

All Were Quarantined.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrell Anderson went to Oregon two weeks ago for their household furniture and on arriving at Ashland found five of the immediate relatives quarantined with scarlet fever. They enjoyed a visit with Mr. Anderson's parents at Talent. Before returning home they took a trip to Crater Lake, which they found very beautiful, still surrounded with about 20 feet of snow. Enroute to the lake they saw a black bear which had traveled down from its mountain cave looking for food. The Andersons, with others driving past, threw food to the hungry beast without tarrying to watch it.

Was At Convention.

Mrs. Annie Jones returned Sunday from attending the State P. T. A. convention held in Los Angeles. Mrs. Jones is the president of the local association and stated 2000 registered at the convention. Mrs. Jones was away a fortnight and during that time had the pleasure of meeting many old friends. One of her outstanding pleasures while in Los Angeles was attending a luncheon given by the Encino Study Club, a society which she organized 10 years ago.

Back At Laughlin.

Mrs. L. M. Burkheim, who passed the winter months in Ukiah has returned to her home at Laughlin. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Wetzel, of Los Angeles, who will be with her mother several weeks. Mrs. Oscar Fredrickson, of Piedmont, and Mrs. Alice Hammond, of Los Angeles, motored up with Mrs. Wetzel for an over-night visit.

Is To Move.

Jack Thompson, who has served as section foreman at Laughlin the past 17 years and who has taken permanently the position as roadmaster on the N. W. P. from Sausalito to Santa Rosa, will move his family to San Rafael where they will make their home.

George Orr arrived Saturday from a 10 days' visit with relatives in different parts of Oregon. Mr. Orr lived there when a boy and while on his visit had the pleasure of renewing old-time friendships.

Back To City.

Mrs. F. Schoenleitner returned Sunday to San Francisco after two weeks passed at her country home here.

Called On Mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kurtz and family and Jack Kurtz, of the bay district, enjoyed last weekend with their mother, Mrs. Lydia Kurtz.

Went To Ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Yarbrough and son, Lloyd, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. John Arndt and her husband, who just returned from a wedding trip to the northern states, were in San Francisco for the bridge opening. Mr. and Mrs. Arndt remained in San Francisco where they will make their home.

Educator Better.

T. S. Van Vleet, who has been in Ukiah General Hospital the past two weeks with pneumonia, is improving nicely.

On Short Visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jordan and George Jordan came up from Alameda for a few days visit in the Nels Nelson home. The Jordans motored up in their new Oldsmobile sedan.

Drove To Redway.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reilley, who recently purchased a coupe, motored to Redway recently to enjoy the weekend holiday with Mrs. Reilley's parents, who have a summer home there. The Reilleys were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams and daughter, Hazel, who were their guest.

Had An Outing.

Mrs. Nels Nelson, Miss Anna Nelson, Mrs. Vera K. Watson and Miss L. Kistler picnicked at Camp Beauty, a lovely resort north of Willits on the Redwood highway. The affair was planned by Mrs. Nelson for the birthday of Mrs. Watson and Miss Kistler.

SUN VENTURE COST FORTUNE

One Hundred Thousand Dollars Spent Trying For Oil

The last evidence of the determined attempt to develop oil at Point Arena was removed when the steamer Shasta, one of the largest vessels ever to enter Pt. Arena port, called to take out the oil drilling machinery and pipe of the Sun Oil Company. This machinery had been stored near Point Arena the past three years.

Oil Long Sought.

Some half dozen attempts have been made in the past 40 years to develop oil at Point Arena. Evidence of oil is apparent along the shore line south of this port. None of the wells drilled brought in oil in paying quantities.

Spent Large Sum.

The Sun Oil Company spent in the neighborhood of $100,000 in development work and also had options on much acreage, expecting oil might be secured over quite an area.

MITCHELL'S HAS SODA FOUNTAIN

An attractive new soda fountain and lunch counter have recently been added to Mitchell's Creamery, with a long row of red cushioned seats placed at a comfortable height facing a broad counter and opposite a large mirror, below which glistens equipment of monel-metal. Enlargement of the store to accommodate the ever-increasing number of customers stopping along the highway route was made by utilizing space formerly taken by office and storeroom, which are now at the rear of the building. Added shelf room for groceries has also been made available.

Woodsman Paid For A Violation

Clifton Van Winkle, who has been working in the Caspar woods several years past, was arrested last week by Deputy Fish and Game Commissioner Ovid Holmes for fishing without a license. Mr. Van Winkle appeared before Judge C. A. Larson in Willits and entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25, which was paid. His fishing pole and basket were confiscated by the court and turned over to the Fish and Game Commission to be disposed of.

SAW IT ALL

Mrs. Ellen McCarthy tells of her trip to the Golden Gate bridge as one of her most thrilling experiences. She was fortunate in making the tour with her son, Edward McCarthy, who, as engineer on the electrical staff, took her through the control rooms as well as seeing that she missed none of the special Fiesta features.

TROPHIES ON FLOAT STOLEN

Vandals Loot Lake Exhibit At Recent Bridge Fiesta

(The Lakeport Press)

Many Lake county residents were disappointed when the Lake county float failed to make its appearance as scheduled at the Regatta. However, it was no fault of Julius Paulson, who so generously donated the truck for the float. Due to the width of the float a special permit had to be obtained from the state highway department to allow the float on the highway and for some unknown reason the permit failed to reach Mr. Paulson.

Vandals Looted It.

The float was dismantled in San Francisco and the truck was driven up Sunday with what was left of the float after thieves had stripped it of the outboard motor, deer horns and other loaned articles used on the float.

Losses Suffered.

Policemen and soldiers were stationed in the parking lot where the floats were ordered parked after the parade but they failed to see the culprits who could not resist the temptation of taking the articles. The outboard motor was donated by Harold Hoberg and Edgar Mason and the deer heads were donated by the Oasis resort on Hopland mountain.

A FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hurlock and their daughter, Connie, enjoyed a visit with Mr. Hurlock's mother, Mrs. Agnes Hurlock, of Santa Clara and friends of San Jose at Mt. View following Fiesta activities in San Francisco.

Virgil Stinehoff, Traffic Officer on the Bay bridge, concluded a visit with his mother, Mrs. Susan Stinehoff, and returned to his duties Thursday morning.

SOMEWHAT IMPROVED

The condition of F. L. Bechtol, who has been ill the past two weeks, is considerably improved.

Attorney Wayne P. Burke was on a legal mission in Fort Bragg Saturday.

WORK EXHIBITED

Miss Bernice Vassar, of Laytonville, who graduated from Ukiah high school several years ago, has been honored by having an oil painting exhibited at the Memorial building at the Civic Center, San Francisco.

GALA FLOAT STIRRED PRIDE

Recreation And Beauty Are Mendocino's Offer At Fiesta

Mendocino county may well be proud of the outstanding beauty and originality of its representation in the history-making celebration of the Golden Gate Bridge Fiesta in San Francisco. The float, sponsored by the county and its cities, clearly painted a picture of the beauty and recreations of Mendocino, causing the announcer and commentator to exclaim excitedly that something of rare beauty was approaching when it arrived at the reviewing stand. The audience warmly agreed with him by applauding and cheering.

Perfect In Detail.

The figures were cleverly costumed and were especially attractive in the electric parade Saturday night, receiving much applause and compliments. Orchids to Norman Buhn for his selection of girls and his wise judgment in handling the program! Much time was spent supervising the float, which had to be carefully checked for detail to fit the history of Mendocino county.

Story Depicted.

On sight the living tableau presented a story of Mendocino. There was an Indian squaw and her papoose resting on a mountain side, a young and beautiful Indian maid standing nearby, a girl intent near a stream, fishing, a huntress in bright red hat and sweater, a girl in cool blue bathing suit, a girl playing golf, and a sailor girl. Parts were accurately portrayed by Mrs. Geo. Miller, Ukiah, Indian squaw; Dorothy Wilsey, Covelo, Indian maid, Millie Morgan, Willits, angler; Delpha Cardey, Yorkville, modern Diana; Edith Swanson, Mendocino City, bathing girl; Constance Hurlock, Ukiah, golf exponent, and Rosalyn Fonville, Fort Bragg, sailor lass.

Mendocino Line-Up.

Hopland high school band, with its record of every one of the 53 pupils of the school taking part, and dressed in showy red and white, led the Mendocino contingent in fine marching form. Next came the drum and bugle corps of Willits high school in rythmic drill and then the float, a real invitation to all who saw it to enjoy Mendocino's varied fields of recreation.

Happy To Take Part.

Participants from the county were comfortably housed at the Golden State Hotel and enjoyed everything to the fullest, during their stay in San Francisco, most especially the opportunity to sell Mendocino county to the people and visitors of San Francisco.

NO OFFERS FOR WOOL REPORTED

Leon Shelton, rancher in the northern section of the county, finished shearing his sheep this week and has sold the wool to a Ukiah buyer at a price considerably above the present market. Mr. Shelton made the sale several weeks ago at a time when buyers were offering high prices. Since then the market has slumped and no one is making any offers.

Tourist Traffic Is Found Too Great

Between 10,000 and 15,000 persons, it is estimated, poured into Lake county over the Memorial Day holidays only to find all accommodations had been exhausted, even to the last "spare bedroom" and were forced to continue into other areas. Between 18,000 and 20,000 others were housed, fed and given recreational facilities during the vacation rush.

INDIAN IN JAIL

David Wilburn, 40, Mendocino county Indian, convicted of disturbing the peace, entered Sonoma county jail to serve a 90 days' sentence given by Justice of the Peace G. R. Redwine, of Round Valley, recently.

Indications Are Golden Gate Bridge Is To Easily Carry Its Indebtedness

Financing the Golden Gate Bridge is off to a flying start. In its first four days of operation the huge span, handling the abnormally large flow of fiesta and weekend traffic, has earned its keep more than three times over. Figures released by Roy West, auditor, showed the bridge provided a gate crossing for 145,000 automobiles between its opening at noon Friday and a checkup at noon Monday.

36,500 Is Average.

The average for each of the four days was 36,500 cars—against the 10,000 a day needed to provide the $5,000 which will pay all operation, maintenance, interest and bond redemption costs. Daily traffic figures for the bridge, in 24-hour periods from noon to noon, were: Friday-Saturday, 31,800; Saturday-Sunday, 39,100; Sunday-Monday, 41,000, and Monday-Tuesday, 33,500. Complete figures on the number of pedestrians who have thus far paid their nickels for the greatest hike in the world are not available.

Report Held Up.

Computation of the number who used the bridge on "Pedestrian Day" will be held up pending a report from the fiesta committee on the number of souvenir tickets sold. It is estimated the first day sent more than 200,000 hikers across the bridge.

Those Who Walked.

On the three succeeding days the pedestrian totals were: Friday-Saturday, 14,016; Saturday-Sunday, 14,984; Sunday-Monday, 15,723. Collapse of the coin-box system made a count by hand necessary and has delayed computation of pedestrian traffic.

A Young Fisherman Accidentally Shot

James Clausen, 14, who lives in Berkeley, was fishing in the Hearst section the first of this week and, in his luggage, had a revolver in addition to his fishing tackle. While he was climbing over the rocks the gun was discharged, the bullet striking him in the right leg. It clipped off a small portion of bone and severed an artery. He was taken to Howard Memorial Hospital, Willits, where he is getting along as well as could be expected.

CALF KILLER GETS 5 YEARS

Convict From Mendocino Has Sentence Set By Board

The San Quentin term of Harold Bettinger was fixed at five years at the June 1 meeting of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles. Mr. Bettinger is the Carmel author who was sentenced to state's prison for grand theft, for taking and killing a Jersey calf belonging to Frank Leonard near Fort Bragg in May of last year. He was received at the prison June 13, 1936.

Was Writing A Book.

Mr. Bettinger, accompanied by his wife, had come into the coast section a short time before his arrest and had taken possession of a cabin belonging to his father, a former resident of that section. He was gathering material for a book, according to his statement to the court.

Was Hard Up.

Their funds exhausted, the calf was butchered to provide food. On arraignment Mr. Bettinger pleaded guilty. His petition for probation was denied on recommendation of Probation Officer A. D. Scott.

Sportsmen Plan An Abalone Feed

(Fort Bragg Advocate)

The annual abalone feed, sponsored by the Fort Bragg Associated Sportsmen, will be given Sunday, June 13. As there are exceptionally low tides all during the week sufficient abalones will be secured by members of the club to feed a large crowd.

TO SERVE HERE

Court Reporter Hale Prather went to Eureka Sunday to take the place of his brother, Court Reporter Harvey Prather, of that city for a week. City Manager Fred Bosworth will be available to do the work here during his absence.

"BILL" WHITNEY BUYS AUTO CAMP

Judge W. F. "Bill" Whitney this week purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Lewis their 40-acre auto camp known as Camp Lewis, eight miles north of Willits. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will continue to occupy the property for some time.

Senator G. M. Biggar Works Constantly

Senator Geo. M. Biggar, of Covelo, was in the city Thursday enroute to Sacramento where he was looking after road matters. Senator Biggar has actually done more for Mendocino county than any member Mendocino county has had in the state senate. He is untiring in his efforts to advance the interests of this county and works for all sections impartially.

Miss Mary Messick Is Out Of Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Messick returned from San Joaquin county the first of last week where they had gone to visit relatives of Mr. Messick. On the return from San Francisco they were accompanied home by Mary Messick, who has been in a San Francisco hospital a number of weeks. Miss Mary is considerably improved and universal hope here is she may continue to get better.

REPAIRS ARE MADE ON SPAN

Rock Creek Bridge Is Made Safe—Trucks Using It

The temporary bridge over Rock creek, built to replace the old and weakened structure, was completed last week and opened to traffic, so all highway travel, including heavy trucks, is now going through without delay.

Became Unsafe.

The old bridge was built to carry loads of not more than 8 to 10 tons and of late years has been subjected to the strain of carrying trucks and trailers weighing up to 40 or 50 tons. This overloading had its effect and the bridge finally showed signs of giving way, making it unsafe for the heavy trucks.

Is Only Temporary.

The new bridge is designed as a temporary structure, but will carry the load until such time as the highway department can design and build a permanent structure worthy of the present day traffic.

Twin Fawns At Camp Marwedel

(Fort Bragg Advocate)

Twin fawns were born in the paddock at Camp Marwedel on Noyo river Wednesday evening. The mother, a fine, gentle doe, was donated to the camp deer collection by Mrs. Ward Ries a year ago. The twins are a buck and doe and they are very tiny, unusually so, but none the less lively and observant of everything that is going on. They are very prompt whenever mother doe rings the dinner bell. This blessed event brings the total number of deer in Camp Marwedel park to seven, four bucks and three does.

AT CONFERENCE

Special Demonstration of the Biggest Values in 1937 Refrigerators

only 90¢ A WEEK BUYS A KELVINATOR

● When you see the new Kelvinator, you won't wonder why so many families are buying it now to replace their old electrical refrigerators.

First thing they appreciate—because they've had experience with mechanical refrigeration—is the importance of the two facts displayed above. They know this means better refrigeration in every way . . . quicker cooling . . . faster freezing . . . longer life . . . and real money savings, day after day.

And there's no reason why they should deny themselves the greater satisfaction Kelvinator will give them, the conveniences and economy it offers. Or why you should, whether you now own an electrical refrigerator or not.

Just think how easy it is to buy one of these new, Plus-Powered Kelvinators. The weekly payments are a mere trifle. You have years to pay. Yet Kelvinator can start saving money for you right away. We're holding a special demonstration of the 1937 Kelvinator, in all sizes—the year's biggest values in refrigeration. It's on today. Come in and see it!

ONLY KELVINATOR GIVES YOU ALL THESE ADVANTAGES

BUILT-IN THERMOMETER . . . Kelvinator's plus power assures safe refrigeration temperature—always . . . The built-in thermometer proves this.

RUBBER GRIDS IN ALL ICE TRAYS . . . Kelvinator's plus power gives abundant reserve capacity to provide as much ice as you'll ever need.

CERTIFICATE OF LOW OPERATING COST . . . Kelvinator's plus power assures less running time each day . . . only Kelvinator gives you a Certificate of Low Cost of Operation.

5-YEAR PROTECTION PLAN . . Kelvinator's plus power unit runs less time at slower speed—years of dependable service—certified with a Five-Year Protection Plan.

SEASON'S CUT DISPOSED OF

Large Sale Of Lumber Made By Laytonville Plant

The Steele & Helm sawmill on the Branscomb road west of Laytonville has closed a deal with a San Francisco lumber firm whereby the mill sold some 400,000 feet of redwood lumber, to be shipped to the Bay city immediately.

Trucks Take Lumber Away.

Several trucks will be put on the job by the San Francisco firm at once and it is expected all the lumber will be moved in about two weeks. The lumber represents what was left of last summer's cut at this mill. The Steele & Helm mill has been overhauled during the winter and is now in much better condition to produce lumber. They started the summer's work last week.
